

MYPNI Helps Poor People in Kelantan

October 2010, President of Malaysian Postgraduates of Northern Ireland (MyPNI) Ramzan Ramza Ramli with two other representatives of MyPNI have been given an opportunity to give a talk on Charity work programme which had been launched in Belfast recently. This charity programme is collaboration with the Islamic Women's Welfare (LKPIM) Kelantan welfare program among the poor in Malaysia.

He said the collaboration would include the distribution of donations, including money, books and clothes collected among the donors in that place.

Some donors have come forward to give consent to assist the associations involved in implementing the program. The briefing on MyPNI and Charity programme was organised by LKPIM at Golf and Country Club Kelantan.

"For a start, MyPNI deliver cash donations amounting to RM7,700 proceeds from the launch of Happy Children - Your Children, Our Future, held at the university recently," he said.

Present Advisory MyPNI, Dr. Mohd. Saiful Bahari Mohd. Kassim and Kelantan LKPIM Chairman, Datin Bi Samihah Mohd. alleh.

S

According to Ramzan Ramza, his cooperation may be, to charitable activities and the assistance provided is to be monitored by a non-governmental organizations in this country.

With that, he said, programs will continue in the future.

Business is consistent with the desires of the members MyPNI that will help them to continue on his return to homeland after graduation, "he said.

Translated from: Utusan Malaysia Oct 23, 2010

Charity Work (Happy Children - Your Children, Our Future)

Written by Administrator

Sunday, 24 October 2010 10:34 - Last Updated Sunday, 24 October 2010 11:20
